

Sunday Seminar

February 25

Conversation with Rabbi Peter Stein

Led by Peter Stein, Temple B'rith Kodesh

All are invited to take part in the ongoing dialogue during this “exchange” weekend with Temple B'rith Kodesh. Rabbi Peter Stein will lead the Sunday Seminar as we talk about the important interfaith issues of our day.

March 4

Conflict without Contempt

Led by Kit Miller, Director of the M.K. Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence

Gandhi was famous for his ability to engage in conflict without rancor. How can we develop this capacity within ourselves, to benefit our relations with self, family and friends and others? Join Gandhi Institute director Kit Miller for an engaging hour of learning and conversation.

March 11

Remembering the Hudnut Years – A Panel Discussion

During this Hudnut Weekend, we will welcome James and Heidi Hudnut-Beumler as speakers and preachers and celebrate our 190th Anniversary with them at tea. On Sunday morning, the Sunday Seminar will include a panel to reflect on the history and legacy of the Hudnut years at Third Presbyterian Church and how they resonate in our life today.

March 18 & 25

The Relationship Between Church and State

Led by Elizabeth Thorpe, Assistant Professor at The College at Brockport

The history of the relationship between the American church and state is fraught. We will go over the historical development of that relationship and major milestones in the church/state debate. We will discuss the notion of a “Christian nation” legally, theologically, and practically.

Growing in the Word

Exploring the Bible one book at a time, we are moving through the Gospel of Mark, from which many of this year's scripture readings are drawn.
