

Seeking the Light

Grace. It is—not at all coincidentally, I now think—the name of the street where my wife and I first lived together. It is the middle name of our firstborn child, who with her twin sister has taught us so much about how to accept God’s immanent presence. And it is, I am absolutely sure, the fearful and hopeful state in which my wife and I lay the first night I was home from the hospital after the transplant, feeling like a holy fever that bright defiance of, not death exactly, and not suffering, but meaningless death and suffering—which surely warrants, if anything does, the name of faith.

Preparation for Worship

We come to worship from a busy and noisy world. As we prepare to offer ourselves in praise and adoration of God, it is important that we step back from our preoccupations and focus our thoughts on God. We ask that you please turn off all cell phones and pagers. As the music begins this morning, please take time to become more aware of the continuing presence of God.

PRAYER
of CONFESSION

God of mercy, you sent Jesus Christ to seek and save the lost. We confess that we have strayed from you and turned aside from your way. We are misled by pride, for we see ourselves pure when we are stained, and great when we are small. We have failed in love, neglected justice, and ignored your truth.

Have mercy, O God, and forgive our sin. Return us to paths of righteousness through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

"Lass dich nur nichts nicht dauern" Johannes Brahms
(Let nothing ever grieve thee)

Lass dich nur nichts nicht dauern mit
Trauren, sei stille, wie Gott es fügt, so sei vergnügt mein Wille.

Was willst du heute sorgen auf morgen,
der Eine stehst allem für, der gibt auch

Sei nur in allem Handel ohne Wandel, steh feste, was Gott beschleust, das ist
und heist das Beste. Amen.

Lenten Retreat—April 5

9:00am-12:00pm

"My Bright Abyss: Meditation of a Modern Believer" by Christian Wiman

In this interactive morning, John Wilkinson will lead us in an exploration of Christian Wiman's best-selling and well-reviewed book "My Bright Abyss," which asks many of the questions that contemporary people of faith are asking. You can find many positive reviews on the internet; Kathleen Norris calls it a "daring and urgent book."

All Third Church-ers are encouraged to read the book, whether you can be present on April 5 or not. The book is now available in hardcover and paperback; one way to order it is through Amazon.com via the Third Church website.

A brief essay called "Love Bade Me Welcome" was a precursor to the book. You can read it by logging into: <http://www.onbeing.org/program/remembering-god/feature/love-bade-me-welcome-gazing-abyss/4662>. Printed copies of the essay are available at the church office.

There is no cost for the morning. For planning purposes, please register by contacting the church office.

Contact John Wilkinson if you have any questions or comments about the book or the Lenten gathering. We hope you can join us on April 5.

Dining Room Ministry Opportunities

Our Dining Room Ministry teams have some spaces available and would love to add to their numbers. Each team works one Saturday morning every ten weeks from approximately 10:00am to 1:00pm. We welcome children to join their parents on our teams as well. If this would fit into your schedule, please see Nancy or Robb Adams or email us at nancycadams@hotmail.com.

Thank you for giving this opportunity of serving our hungry neighbors your consideration.

Baby Items Needed at Cameron

Recently Cameron Community Ministries has been seeing a very steep increase in the need for baby items, especially diapers, formula, and warm clothing. Additionally, gently used equipment for infants such as strollers or Pack-n-Plays are needed. Donations can be dropped off at the church or taken directly to Cameron.

RAIHN

RAIHN –in winter—A Request

We've just finished an inspiring rotation with ten RAIHN guests taking refuge from the brutal cold in our snug Christian Education building. We found, however, that we need more blankets. Each guest was provided two blankets to start, but that wasn't enough. We needed more blankets than we have in our supplies. So, as you move toward spring, please remember our RAIHN guests and bring any spare, washable, twin-size blankets you have to the church office with a note that they're for RAIHN at Third Church. If you'd like a receipt for tax purposes, please include your name with your donation.

April Volunteer Opportunities

Our next RAIHN rotation starts on Palm Sunday and continues through Holy Week. As we start to assemble our hosting and setup/takedown teams, now is the time to check your calendar. Please contact Wendy Shellman no later than March 20 for your volunteer spot (Shellman@rochester.rr.com or 383-8288). Thank you for all you do to make this ministry successful.

HUNGER SUNDAY

Next Sunday please bring:

Canned Fruits & Vegetables (14-15 oz)

Canned Soups (tomato, chicken noodle)

Food Cupboard needs your donations
