Preparation for Worship

We come to worship from a busy and noisy world. As we prepare to offer ourselves in praise and adoration of God, it is important that we step back from our preoccupations and focus our thoughts on God. We ask that you please turn off all cell phones and pagers. As the music begins this morning, please take time to become more aware of the continuing presence of God.

God of mercy, God of love, in humbleness of heart we confess our sins. We forget to love and serve you, and wander from your ways. We are careless with your world, and put its life in danger. We talk of our concern for others, but fail to match our words with action.

Merciful God, forgive us our sins and bring us to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ your Son, our Savior. Amen.

PRESENTATION of OFFERINGS

ANTHEM "There's A Wideness in God's Mercy" Maurice Bevan

There's a wideness in God's mercy Like the wideness of the sea; There's a kindness in his justice Which is more than liberty. There is no place where earth's sorrows Are more felt than up in heav'n;
There is no place where earth's failings Have such kindly judgement giv'n.

For the love of God is broader Than the measure of man's mind; and the heart of the Eternal Is most wonderfully kind. But we make his love too narrow By false limits of our own; And we magnify his strictness With a zeal he will not own.

There is plenteous redemption In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members In the sorrows of the Head. There is grace enough for thousands Of new worlds as great as this; There is room for fresh creations In that upper home of bliss. If our love were but more simple, We should take him at his word; And our lives would be all gladness In the joy of Christ our Lord.

Frederick William Faber, 1854

Learning from Raleigh

*Tuesday, September 30, 7:00pm
Johnston Hall*

This past Spring, eleven people (convened by UPT) traveled to Raleigh, North Carolina to learn about their public education successes and see what lessons might be applied to Rochester. It was a transforming experience not only for the group, but also to help us think about possibilities locally. UPT and the Presbytery of Genesee Valley have an important role in helping to address challenges that Rochester schools are facing.

Come learn about the trip, and more so, help us consider next directions in what we are calling the "Great Schools for All" conversation.

Meals with a Meaning—October 4

Mark your calendar because you are invited for dinner in the home of one of our fellow members on October 4! This is a wonderful opportunity to visit and get to know the people you see on Sundays. Breads of international origin are welcome! Freshly baked bread will need to be delivered to the church kitchen Saturday morning, October 4 no later than noon. There will be a designated spot for bread in the kitchen in consideration of Dining Room Ministry. Please email Susan Fox at swichmanfox@gmail.com if you are interested in baking.

A light lunch will be served. Please RSVP to the church office to reserve your place. A $5.00 donation is suggested to offset the cost of the meal. For more information, contact Martha Langford 585.271.6537 ext. 108, mlangford@thirdpresbyterian.org
