Preparation for Worship

We come to worship from a busy and noisy world. As we prepare to offer ourselves in praise and adoration of God, it is important that we step back from our preoccupations and focus our thoughts on God. We ask that you please turn off all cell phones and pagers. As the music begins this morning, please take time to become more aware of the continuing presence of God.

ANTHEM "Thou, O God, Art Praised in Sion"

Malcolm Boyle

Thou, O God, art praised in Sion, and unto Thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem. Thou that hearest the prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come. Blessed is the man whom Thou choosest and receivest unto Thee. He shall dwell in Thy courts and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of Thy house, e'en of Thy holy temple. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace because he trusteth in Thee. Trust ye in the Lord forever, for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength. Let the people praise Thee, O God, yea, let all the people praise Thee. Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God shall give us His blessing.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

"In Remembrance"
(from Celebrate Life!)

Beryl Red
Covenant Singer

In remembrance of me, eat this bread. In remembrance of me, drink this wine. In remembrance of me, pray for the time when God's own will is done. In remembrance of me, heal the sick. In remembrance of me, feed the poor. In remembrance of me, open the door and let your brother in. Take, eat, and be comforted. Drink, and remember, too, that this is my body and precious blood, shed for you. In remembrance of me, search for truth. In remembrance of me, always love. In remembrance of me, don't look above, but in your heart for God. Do this in remembrance of me.

MINISTRY, SERVICE, AND FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

About Today's Music

February 2 is celebrated in many liturgical churches as the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus at the Temple – 40 days after his birth, part of the Jewish ritual of the time. Upon bringing Jesus into the temple, Mary and Joseph encountered Simeon, who, according to the Gospel of Luke, had been promised that “he should not see death before he had seen the Lord Christ.” Simeon prayed the prayer that would become known as the Nunc dimittis, or Canticle of Simeon, which prophesied the redemption of the world by Jesus. The first anthem this morning is a setting of the Nunc dimittis, by former Third Church Assistant Organist Tom Mueller, and this is its first performance.

The anthem offered by the Covenant Singers during communion, “In Remembrance,” expands on Jesus’ words of institution at the Last Supper, with many more examples of how we can “remember” him. The piece comes from the musical Celebrate Life! which the Covenant Singers will be offering in concert form in our worship on Sunday, April 26. This is just a snippet of what is to come...

Souper Bowl of Caring Today

The Youth of Third Church are participating in the Souper Bowl of Caring once again. This year’s special offering will be received today and will be donated to Third Church Hunger Ministries and Cameron Community Ministry. Please help us reach our goal of collecting one dollar more than last year’s total of $2,407.83. Because today is the Souper Bowl of Caring, here are some facts about the Third Church hunger ministry.

Did you know that...

- Third Church Dining Room Ministry Teams serve a hot meal to an average of 78 people each Saturday?
- In 2014, the Food Cupboard provided basic, nutritious food items (including milk, fresh fruits and vegetables) to 2,751 guests?
- In December, 76 needy families from the city of Rochester received a Christmas food basket filled with a week’s worth of food?

Your contributions today, and your financial support throughout the year, make all of this possible. Thank you!

She will explore the origins and provide an overview of prophecy in Ancient Israel in the first of three sessions.

Each group is tasked with spending 60 days establishing straightforward objectives, reviewing relevant research, assessing opportunities for and barriers to success, and proposing action steps that could be initiated within the next year.
