Seeking the Light

“If the Trinity is a model or pattern for us, we realize that we are created to share our human lives with one another, to participate in the lives of others, and to see ourselves not as isolated units or ‘individuals’, but as those created for relationships with our fellow human beings. These relationships should be marked by the love that exists within the Godhead.”

Preparation for Worship

We come to worship from a busy and noisy world. As we prepare to offer ourselves in praise and adoration of God, it is important that we step back from our preoccupations and focus our thoughts on God. We ask that you please silence all electronic devices. As the music begins, please take time to become more aware of the continuing presence of God.

**Please stand as you are able, in body or in spirit.*

*HYMN 1      “Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!”      NICAEA

PRAYER of CONFESSION      from the Fourth Grade Class

Merciful God, you have given us so much, yet we have not always been grateful. We brag, we fight and we take more than we give. You’ve called us to get along and live peacefully together. But we fail to listen to your commands and to our neighbors. We twist the truth to hurt others and make ourselves look better. We lie and exclude others because of differences. We confess that too often we hurt instead of heal. We try to follow your way but we get lost. Guide us back onto your path and forgive our sins. Amen.

SILENT PRAYER

KYRIE

When I gaze into the night skies and see the work of Your fingers; The moon and stars suspended in space. Oh, what are people, that You are mindful of them? You have given them a crown of glory and honor, And have made them a little lower than the angels. You have put them in charge of all creation: The beasts of the field, the birds of the air, the fish of the sea. But what are people that You are mindful of them? O Lord, our God, the majesty and glory of Your name transcends the earth and fills the heavens. O Lord, our God, little children praise You perfectly, and so would we. Alleluia!

ANTHEM

"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"

All hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal diadem, and crown Him Lord of all! Ye chosen seed of Israel's race, ye ransomed from the fall; Hail Him who saves you by His grace, and crown Him Lord of all! Let every kindred, every tribe, on this terrestrial ball, to Him all majesty ascribe, and crown Him Lord of all! O that with yonder sacred throng we at His feet may fall! We'll join the everlasting song, and crown Him Lord of all!

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

This morning's prelude, the Scherzo, Op. 2, is one of Maurice Duruflé's (1902 – 1986) first works for organ, written as part of the exit examinations to complete his schooling. The harmonic finesse and economic use of motive within the work demonstrate high levels of maturity, though. The piece is in rondo form, meaning the main idea comes back three times with contrasting sections in between. Scherzo means joke, but the beauty and humor within this work are by no means cheap or silly.

The first anthem today, The Majesty and Glory of Your Name, is a contemporary piece with a text based on Psalm 8, the psalm for today in the lectionary. Composer Tom Fettke (b. 1941) has been active for many years as a church musician, publisher, and arranger, working primarily in evangelical circles. The text was adapted by Linda Lee Johnson, a member of one of the choirs he conducted in the late 1970s. It provides a fresh, but strong, perspective on the Psalm.

James Q. Mulholland, composer of our offertory anthem, serves as Professor of Composition and Music History at Butler University in Indianapolis. He has been a prolific composer of music for church and school for a number of years, with many of his compositions chosen for All-State choral lists, and performances at national conventions of the American Choral Directors Association. His hymn-anthem on All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name is a straight-forward presentation of the 18th century hymn text, set to the tune CORONATION.

Charles-Marie Widor (1844 – 1937) wrote his sixth Organ Symphony for the inauguration of the massive Cavallé-Coll organ at the Trocadero, a concert hall in the heart of Paris. The first movement, Allegro, stands tall and strong like a cathedral, with brassy, loud chords at the heart of its theme. That theme is then developed through a kind of variation set, and the piece concludes with a restatement of that which opened the work, like the pillars that hold up a structure as grand as the Trocadero itself.
