As we prepare to offer ourselves in praise and adoration of God, it is important that we step back from our preoccupations and focus our thoughts on God. 2017 Christmas Joy Offering

With Christ at the center of this holiday season, we can follow in his example of servant leadership by serving our brothers and sisters in faith. Funds from the Christmas Joy Offering support past, present, and future leaders in two particular ways: providing critical financial assistance to eligible workers/families in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and to qualifying retired church workers and their families; and supporting the education and development of our future leaders at Presbyterian-related racial ethnic schools and colleges. Thanks to your generosity, we can support those in need.

Today is the last day we will receive the Christmas Joy Offering. Envelopes are available in the pew racks.

Sunday Seminar

Sunday Seminar will return on January 7 at 9:30am in Johnston Hall with "Spiritual Formation and Directions on Ministry" led by Martha Langford.

Growing in the Word

Please send your nominations to jwilkinson@thirdpresbyterian.org or complete a nomination form located in the chapel and sanctuary or the church office starting Sunday, January 7.

Stained Glass Returns

We are pleased to report that the stained glass window in the northeast corner of the sanctuary, "A Tree Planted by the Rivers of Water" (Willet Studios, 1961), is now back in place after a successful restoration! A combination of special gifts and funds from the Property Committee operating budget made this possible. Thank you!

Calvin Guild

Wednesday, January 17, 12:00pm,
Johnston Hall

Join us for lunch and a presentation on Eleanor Roosevelt by Rochester resident and history buff John Schmeelk, who describes his talk as follows, "The program will center around Mrs. Roosevelt as a woman who was a bridge from the traditional roles of women to the present. A look at what formed her, things that helped create this uniquely talented and flawed gift to all Americans. Family, marriage, politics, and a war against depression (her own and the nation's). A Great Woman - A Great Human Being." Cost is $8 for a simple soup and sandwich lunch. Please RSVP to Dot Wallace (dpiercwallace@gmail.com) no later than Friday, January 12.

Christmas in January!

Come and Sing Carols for the Christmas Lessons & Carols recording for 2018 Saturday, January 20, from 1:00 – 2:30pm in the Sanctuary. All members and friends of the congregation are invited to participate in a Christmas Lessons and Carols recording that the Chancel Choir, readers, and clergy will be making in collaboration with WXXI. This recording will be broadcast locally on Christmas Eve 2018, and around the nation during the Christmas season! We hope to gather a "congregation" – as many people as possible. We'll sing traditional Christmas carols, and hear the readings we typically do on Christmas Eve. Join us for this event to help share the Good News of Christ's birth in 2018! Invite a friend!

Christmas Baskets – You Can Still Help!

The Christmas Basket Committee appreciates all who have chosen to sponsor a food basket for a family in need as well as all who have donated money for the purchase of TOPS gift cards, mittens, hats, undies and tights. We are still in need of additional funds to cover the gift cards. Today is the last day to contribute. Please drop-off your check or cash donation to Carol Foster at the church and make a note that it is for The 2017 Christmas Basket Ministry Program.

Should you have questions feel free to contact Sheila Elliott at 750-0611, or email selliott@rotoliteelliott.com.

Boar's Head Needs You!

Bakers are still needed to provide cookies, breads, mince tarts and plum puddings for the festive receptions which will follow both performances of The Boar's Head and Yule Log Festival on January 6 and 7. Items may be prepared as you do your holiday baking, but need to be delivered to the church by Friday, January 5. Easy recipes for mince tarts, plum puddings, and volunteer forms may be found in the literature racks outside the church office. Please let us know as soon as possible if you can provide baked goods, and also if you are available to help with the reception set-up.

YOU ARE INVITED TO HELP financially support our presentation of the biennial Boar's Head and Yule Log Festival on January 6 and 7, as a Patron. The Festival is a wonderful tradition and a gift from our congregation to the larger community of Rochester as we conclude our celebration of Christmas with this great Epiphany event! To help in this way, send a check payable to Third Presbyterian Church with the notation "Boar's Head Patron" clearly marked—or place your check, so marked, in the offering plate.
